Product Description

The St. Augustine commercial playground is a perfect, compact option for young children. In addition to fitting well on smaller outdoor spaces, it's a great starting point for curating a play area for developing sensory and motor skills. This structure is a great fit for a playground, daycare, church, or any other outdoor area that could use a fun, safe option for little ones. Engage children in sensory play by having them interact with the Gear Panel, Bubble Panel, Tic Tac Toe Panel, and more. If kids want a break from the various panels, they also have the option to take a thrilling exit on the Straight Slide. St. Augustine uses numerous panels and other areas of play to encourage development, making it a great option for your playground or outdoor space. This ad...
